

PSALM 23:2

In this series we will take a closer look into the Greatest Scripture Of All Time, Psalm 23

This chapter can make your relationship with God come alive. It can help you personally connect with God like never before and bring you peace, comfort and contentment.

OPENING QUESTIONS - Use one or both of these questions to connect with others in your group:

1. Who's your GOAT TV Dad?
2. Talk about a time you found yourself on a wrong path.

KEY POINTS - take a minute to review the key points from this weekend's message

1. We find three invitations in Psalm 23:3
  - a. An invitation to relationship - "He leads me..."
  - b. An invitation to Righteousness - "He guides me..."
  - c. An invitation to Release - "For His name's sake..."
2. Three Responses to His invitations
  - a. REMIND yourself of these truths
  - b. RHYTHM - Have routines & practices in place aligning with God and His will for you
  - c. REST - "He restores my soul"

3. Psalm 23 rephrased:

God, my shepherd!
I don't need a thing.
You have bedded me down in lush meadows,
you find me quiet pools to drink from.
True to your word,

you let me catch my breath
and send me in the right direction.

Even when the way goes through Death Valley,
I'm not afraid when you walk at my side.
Your trusty shepherd's crook makes me feel secure.

You serve me a six-course dinner right in front of my enemies.
You revive my drooping head; my cup brims with blessing.

Your beauty and love chase after me every day of my life. I'm back home in the house of God for the rest of my life.

SCRIPTURES USED IN THIS MESSAGE: Psalm 23, Romans 5:18-21

RESPOND

Talk about a thought, phrase, or moment from this weekend's message that stuck with you. Give a brief reason for why these things stuck with you.

Read the rephrased Psalm 23 out loud. Did you gain any new insights from this version versus the original? Talk about anything that stood out for you differently.

Explain why it's important to contradict our societal norms to constantly DO more. What can we gain from rest?

Is it sometimes hard for you to give up control of a situation and "let it go"? How does this carry over into your life guided by God?

APPLY

What rhythms/routines do you have in place to redirect you toward God and His path for you? If you've strayed from those, what can you implement now to help with that?
